BASIL YARDE

MINISTRY

Pastor, teacher, and singer, Basil Yarde takes seriously his call to minister to the body of Christ, and not merely to entertain. His songs stimulate the mind, cause the audience to think, and compel them to reflect on their eternity.

In Boston, Basil and his wife, Marion, continue their “Final Thrust” ministry to train believers to effectively communicate the Gospel. He also hosts the show “Ministry in Spotlight” on WEZE radio.

A Voice Heard Around the World

Barbados
Caribbean

Rev. Basil Yarde has been singing for as long as he can remember. Raised in the Christian faith in Barbados, Basil discovered that performing before large audiences proved very natural, and found singing to be a very powerful tool for transmitting the Gospel of Christ. At the invitation of the British government, for example, Basil had been granted the opportunity to sing at fairs, youth correctional facilities, schools and churches.

South America

As an itinerant evangelist and singer, Basil has traveled to the Caribbean as well as to several European, African and South American countries. His mentoring under the renowned Dr. James Kennedy has allowed him the privilege to, in turn, train the staff of many denominations and islands for 11 years in evangelism, including a one-week training for the Anglican clergy of the Bahamas and Turk & Caicos Islands.

Africa
England

Currently, Basil resides in Boston with his wife, Marion, and their son, Brandon. Their eldest son, Basil, Jr. lives in Barbados.

United States

Basil holds a Diploma in Theology from the West Indies School Of Theology, Trinidad, a Bachelors and Masters in Practical Ministry, and is currently a Doctoral candidate at The Wagner Leadership Institute, Colorado. He received credentials from the Pentecostal Assemblies of the West Indies, and currently holds credentials with the Glory of Zion Outreach Center.
